

Health & Safety Committee – December 8, 2022

The Health & Safety Committee met on December 8, 2022. The committee discussed safety drills that were completed for the first semester. In addition, there was a discussion about the recent training that staff had on Superintendent's Conference Day on threat assessment as well as the continued trainings our buildings teams have been going through as part of grant through Ulster BOCES.